PAUL CARDWELL'S RESPONSES TO HEALTHTECH'S FIRST AND SECOND REQUESTS FOR ADMISSION

Come now Defendant, Paul Cardwell, and pursuant to F.R.C.P. 36, responds as follows to the first and second set of Requests for Admission submitted to him by HealthTech Management Services, Inc. ("HealthTech"):

Requests Nos. 1 through 75, First Set of Requests for Admission.

Answers: Objection to each such Request in that Paul Cardwell is currently a defendant in a cause styled as United States of America vs. Paul Cardwell, Case No. 12-cr-00081-F, pending in this same Court, in which he has been charged with multiple counts of criminal conduct based upon the identical facts asserted by HealthTech in this civil action and upon the same facts to which HealthTech seeks his admission in their First set of Requests for Admission. Each such Request seeks to invade his Fifth Amendment right of silence in the face of such criminal charges. He therefore invokes his privilege against self-incrimination, guaranteed to him by the Constitution of the United States, and objects to and refuses to answer each such Request on such basis.

Requests Nos. 1 through 8, Second Set of Requests for Admission.

Answers: Objection to each such Request in that Paul Cardwell is currently a defendant in a cause styled as United States of America vs. Paul Cardwell, Case No. 12-cr-00081-F, pending in this same Court, in which he has been charged with multiple counts of criminal conduct based upon the identical facts asserted by HealthTech in this civil action and upon the same facts to which HealthTech seeks his admission in their Second set of Requests for Admission. Each such Request seeks to invade his Fifth Amendment right of silence in the face of such criminal charges. He therefore invokes his privilege against self-incrimination, guaranteed to him by the Constitution of the United States, and objects to and refuses to answer each such Request on such basis.

Respectfully submitted,

Attorneys for Paul Cardwell
